

War Board Forbids Exporting of Food On Sailing Vessels

Order to Keep Petroleum and Other Materials Also From U-Boats

Few Exceptions Made For Reinstatement Refused by Court

To further emasculate the submarine as an enemy weapon the War Trade Board, it was learned yesterday, has ordered that no sailing vessels should leave Atlantic ports carrying foodstuffs, petroleum, rubber or other materials which would be of use to German U-boats that might capture them on the high seas. As a result many vessels in this port were compelled to unload, and some delay and confusion pervaded shipping circles.

The new restriction, it was explained, does not render the sailing vessel useless for the rest of the war. It will still be able to get clearance papers to authorize it to transport material that would be valueless to submarines that might stop it. The order is one of the defensive measures of this country against the aggression of the undersized craft, and signifies the resolution of the American authorities that submarines will not be able to keep themselves supplied with goods from American ports destined to Allied and neutral countries.

These three years of behavior that show reward in what even in these more enlightened days is regarded as the strictest penal institution in the state form the basis of Mr. Moore's present trouble, though the records of the society which expelled him show that it took as its reason not the prison sentence but the explanation which Mr. Moore made of his mode of life between the years 1894 and 1898.

Applicants for membership in the society have to account almost for every minute of their lives prior to the date of application, and it was found that when Mr. Moore applied for his certificate he said that from 1894 to 1898 he had been in the country regaining his health; no professional work, but much study.

When the facts were placed before the directors of the society they voted to expel Mr. Moore. In an extract from the minutes of the meeting Mr. Corwin is quoted as saying: "I do not believe in convicting a man a second time after he has paid his penalty. This is not the point at all. The point is continued misrepresentation."

The society then sent a record of the proceedings to the Board of Regents for such action as it usually takes in such cases—the revocation of the accountant's certificate.

Mr. Moore at one time was connected with the city administration of Jersey City. A year ago charges that he made against that municipality of fraudulent manipulation of city funds were heard by a legislative committee.

Greenwich Station Closed

The Greenwich Street police station was ordered closed yesterday "because of lack of business."

It was announced at Police Headquarters that the station, in which there have been more Federal prisoners detained than in any other, and which is one of the most modern in the department, is to be used as a storehouse for the department.

Accountant's Plea For Reinstatement Refused by Court

Society's Right to Expel Member for Cause Is Upheld

Supreme Court Justice Donnelly denied yesterday an application made by Albert Star Moore, a certified public accountant, for a court order directing the New York State Society of Certified Public Accountants to rescind the expulsion of Mr. Moore and the recommendation it sent to the Board of Regents that action be taken against him.

Justice Donnelly said that he could not interfere with legal action taken by the society in carrying out the provisions of its constitution and bylaws.

Mr. Moore, for seven years a member in high standing of one of the most exacting professions, thus stands to lose all that he has gained in nineteen irreproachable years of association with his fellows. It was in 1899 that he was released from Clinton prison, where his exemplary conduct had been recognized and rewarded with a commutation of his sentence on a conviction of forgery to three years instead of the four-year term imposed by the court.

These three years of behavior that show reward in what even in these more enlightened days is regarded as the strictest penal institution in the state form the basis of Mr. Moore's present trouble, though the records of the society which expelled him show that it took as its reason not the prison sentence but the explanation which Mr. Moore made of his mode of life between the years 1894 and 1898.

"Half Brother" of The Kaiser Sent to Internment Camp

Dr. Frederick Richard August von Strensch Off for Fort Oglethorpe

Dr. Frederick Richard August von Strensch, the reputed half-brother of the German Kaiser, who was schooled in the methods of Teutonic intrigue by the "Iron Chancellor," Bismarck, started for the internment prison at Camp Oglethorpe, Georgia, yesterday with thirty-seven other dangerous enemy aliens. The men were sent away by United States Marshal McCarty under heavy guard and will be interned for the duration of the war.

Von Strensch, according to the evidence gathered by Charles De Woody, of the Department of Justice, was a trusted agent of the German Foreign Office. His mission in this country was to mobilize an army of 300,000 German revolutionaries and invade Canada from New York, and also to organize a force of 100,000 German revolutionaries in Mexico, with the aid of bandit chiefs, would attack border towns and force the United States to declare war on Mexico.

The plan as outlined in letters found among von Strensch's effects was to enter Canada and start a campaign of terrorism that would force the Dominion authorities to withhold troops from overseas duty and home defense. In Mexico the revolutionaries were to be directed by German officers and carried out by bandits hostile to the United States. The Federal authorities declare that von Strensch is a son of Frederick III, which, if true, would make him a half-brother to Kaiser Wilhelm II.

A part of the scheme worked out by von Strensch was to secure places of trust in Washington for German agents, where they might be in a position to convey government secrets to Berlin.

Court Corant and Hans Jacobson, the two agents of Captain von Papien, who stole confidential plans and specifications from the Sperry Gyroscopic Company in Brooklyn and turned them over to German Embassy officials, were also in the party. They were arrested six weeks ago by agents of the Department of Justice when it was discovered that they had stolen the plans for a new aeroplane stabilizer and attempted to convey them to Germany.

Among others taken from the New York district was Hans Hobbs, a registered enemy alien, who was caught taking pictures of Allied battleships in the harbor from Riverside Drive. He also had notebooks on his person which contained the Prussian code and letters that convinced the authorities that his freedom was a menace.

Ernst Kichin, the secretary of the local branch of Hungarian I. W. W., who was arrested two weeks ago by agent Finch of the Department of Justice, failed to register as an alien enemy. He received $15 a week salary, but was paid $40 a week from some mysterious source. He refused to register as an alien enemy, and was taken to the Federal Agent Pink McCarver of the Department of Justice, produce a draft registration card. McCarver arrested him when he discovered that he had no authority and was an enemy subject.

Tumulty to Attend Benefit

Joseph Tumulty, secretary to the President, will represent Mr. Wilson at a Tank Corps benefit to be held at the Century Theatre tomorrow evening. The object of the performance is to increase the fund of the Tank Corps Welfare League, an organization which provides supplies for the comfort and recreation of the tankers not issued by the government.

Others who have reserved boxes for the entertainment are Colonel Ira C. Wellhot, director of the Tank Corps, and his staff, and the commanders of the Tank Corps camps at Gettysburg and Topham, Penn. About 1,000 tankers will be present. Among those whose names are on the program are Enrico Caruso, George M. Cohan and Mr. and Mrs. Sydney Drew.

Highway Robber Suspect Taken by State Police

NEW CITY, N. Y., Sept. 13.—Three highwaymen armed with revolvers held up a motor truck driven by Leon Wendt, between Tuxedo and Harriman today. They broke open a packing case and took $500 worth of silk, which was among the freight. Wendt was taken from New York to Middletown.

Wendt reported the robbery here and troopers of the state police were dispatched at once. They arrested a man at Middletown whom they are holding to see whether Wendt can identify him.

The Weather Report

WASHINGTON, Sept. 13.—The Northern district of the last few days is central tonight over the middle St. Lawrence Valley, and rain showers for the present are expected for the last part of the night. The temperature will be in the 40's and 50's. In the middle Atlantic state and New York, rain will continue in the morning. The temperature will be in the 40's and 50's.

Temperatures are again quite high for the season in the plains states and the northwest, under the influence of a moderate depression over Kansas and Oklahoma. It is also somewhat warmer in the upper lake region and upper Mississippi Valley, where in the far Northwest it is still in the 40's and 50's.

There will be showers Saturday night or Sunday in the lower Ohio Valley, Tennessee and the northwestern portion of the central United States, and possible showers in the Florida peninsula. In the lower Ohio Valley and the lower Mississippi Valley, there will be showers Saturday night or Sunday. U. S. Swedish Suit Opens

Envoy Appears Against Editor for Reflections on President
STOCKHOLM, Sept. 13.—The suit brought by the United States Legation to Sweden against Harold Solhman, an account of an article published in the "Aftonbladet" regarding America and the war and containing personal reflections on President Wilson, was opened today.

Solhman declared that the American Legation was "trying to apply principles against the right of free utterance, which possibly are now enforced in the United States, but which are contrary to Swedish practice." He asserted the article was not libellous, but merely criticism, contending that America's present war policy was the main obstacle to world peace.

U. S. Drive Causes Suicide

Brooklyn Woman Ends Life Fearing for Kin in Germany
Emile Lud yesterday ended, with cyanide of potassium, the worries with which the war had burdened her. Her sister, Johanna, with whom she shared a room at 2202 Tilden Avenue, Brooklyn, was awakened by the young woman's restless movements after she had swallowed the drug. When a physician arrived she was dead. She used the poison in her business of jewelry cleaning.

A brother in the German army was killed in Belgium and another is a prisoner of war in England. News that the Americans in France had elected an offensive caused the young woman to fear that they would sweep on into the frontier village where her parents and ten-year-old brother are living.
